

Lucy's day - Student A

Ask questions to find the missing pieces of information.

Lucy lives in a (1)and owns a small florist shop. Every morning, she (3) before opening her shop. She has been running the shop for five years now, and she still loves every part of it.

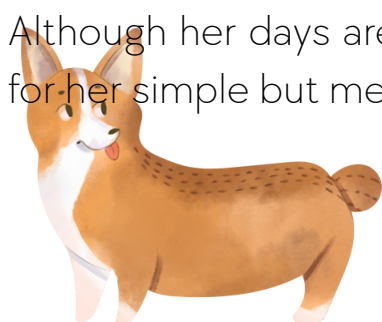

This morning, Lucy arrived at the shop early because (5) A customer wanted a bouquet for their wedding anniversary. She carefully chose the (7), making sure they looked perfect together. "This might be my best arrangement yet," she thought.

After finishing her work, Lucy met (9) for lunch at a nearby café. They hadn't seen each other for a (11), so they had a lot to talk about. One of her friends suggested they take a weekend trip to the countryside, and Lucy said she might go if (13)

In the evening, she read a new article about modern flower arrangements. She (15)learning new techniques and sometimes tries them out in her free time. She ended her day with a long walk with Max. They both enjoyed the (17)

Although her days are often full, Lucy feels proud of her work and thankful for her simple but meaningful life.

Lucy's day - Student B

Ask questions to find the missing pieces of information.

Lucy lives in a charming town in the UK and owns a (2) Every morning, she walks her dog Max before opening her shop. She has been running the shop for (4), and she still loves every part of it.

This morning, Lucy arrived at the shop early because she had an important order to prepare. A customer wanted a (6) She carefully chose the flowers, making sure they looked (8) "This might be my best arrangement yet," she thought.

After finishing her work, Lucy met her friends for lunch at a nearby (10) They hadn't seen each other for a week, so they had a lot to talk about. One of her friends suggested they (12), and Lucy said she might go if the shop isn't too busy.

In the evening, she (14)a new article about modern flower arrangements. She enjoys learning new techniques and sometimes tries them out in her free time. She ended her day with a (16) They both enjoyed the quiet solitude of empty small-town streets.

Although her days are often (18), Lucy feels proud of her work and thankful for her simple but meaningful life.

Lucy's day - whole text

Lucy lives in a (1) charming town in the UK and owns (2) a small florist shop. Every morning, she (3) walks her dog Max before opening her shop. She has been running the shop for (4) five years now, and she still loves every part of it.

This morning, Lucy arrived at the shop early because (5) she had an important order to prepare. A customer wanted (6) a bouquet for their wedding anniversary. She carefully chose the (7) flowers, making sure they looked (8) perfect together. "This might be my best arrangement yet," she thought.

After finishing her work, Lucy met (9) her friends for lunch at a nearby (10) café. They hadn't seen each other for a (11) week, so they had a lot to talk about. One of her friends suggested they (12) take a weekend trip to the countryside, and Lucy said she might go if (13) the shop isn't too busy.

In the evening, she (14) read a new article about modern flower arrangements. She (15) enjoys learning new techniques and sometimes tries them out in her free time. She ended her day with (16) a long walk with Max. They both enjoyed the (17) quiet solitude of empty small-town streets.

Although her days are often (18) full, Lucy feels proud of her work and thankful for her simple but meaningful life.

Lucy's day - answer key

Focus area: Present Simple, questions

Example questions:

1. Where does she live?
2. What does she own?
3. What does she do every morning?
4. How long has she been running the shop for?
5. Why did she arrive early that morning?
6. What did the customer want?
7. What did she choose carefully?
8. How did she want the bouquet to look like?
9. Who did she meet after work?
10. Where did they meet?
11. How long had they not seen each other for?
12. What did her friend suggest?
13. When might Lucy go on the trip?
14. What did she do in the evening?
15. What's her attitude towards learning new things?
16. How did she end her day?
17. What did they enjoy?
18. What kinds of things she usually has?

