

15 Questions About Housing

1. Do you think housing should be a basic human right? Why or why not?
2. Would you rather rent forever or be tied to a mortgage? Why?
3. Could you live in a tiny house? What would you need to give up?
4. Should owning multiple homes be limited or taxed more?
5. Where do you feel more relaxed—the city or the countryside? Why?
6. Do you prefer a clean, simple home or a cosy, cluttered one?
7. Should landlords allow pets in rented homes? Why or why not?
8. What's the situation like in your country? Is home ownership realistic for young adults?
9. What matters more to you—space or location?
10. Could you share your home with strangers in the long term? Why or why not?
11. Should there be rules about the appearance of homes in a neighbourhood?
12. Would you live next to a social housing block? Why or why not?
13. Have you ever lived in a tall building? What was your experience like?
14. Should more money go into restoring old buildings? Why or why not?
15. Is your home just a place to live—or something more?

