

What city are we going to talk about?

Read the facts. Can you guess the place?

1. This ancient city is in the Middle East, in a country with large desert areas.
2. Many of its buildings were carved directly into red and pink stone cliffs.
3. More than 2,000 years ago, it was an important trading centre where travellers and merchants stopped on their journeys.
4. Today, millions of tourists come to see its famous buildings, narrow paths and huge stone walls.
